

Name _____

Bumper Sticker

Directions: Students will create a bumper sticker that explains a topic about Social Studies. Students are assigned their topic. Each student will show a visual representation of what the topic is as well as write about the topic. Students will fill out this paper to serve them as their "rough draft". Then, students will put the final draft on a 9 ½" by 3 ¼" paper that will be provided to them.

The writing section must answer the following questions:

1. Why do you think this topic is important to Social Studies?
2. How would today's world be different if your topic never existed?
3. Who or what does this topic remind you of in today's world? Why?

Topic: _____

1. What do you think that this topic is important to Social Studies?

2. How would today's world be different if your topic never existed?

3. Who or what does this topic remind you of in today's world? Why?

Sketch of Bumper Sticker

Rubric

	0	1	2	3	4
Sentence Writing	Student does not answer any questions.	Student clearly answers one question.	Student clearly answers two questions.	Student clearly answers three questions	Student clearly answers four questions.
Organization	Student does not write anything.	Writing is not well organized.	Well organized, but lacks logical sequencing and sentence structure.	Well organized, but lacks logical sequencing or sentence structure	Writing is well organized, logical sequencing, and sentence structure.
Visual Representation	Student does not include a drawing.	Student includes a visual representation that is limited.	Student includes a visual representation that is satisfactory.	Student includes a visual representation that is above-average.	Student includes a visual that is exceptional.
Creativity	Student does not show creativity.	Student shows limited creativity.	Student shows satisfactory creativity.	Student shows above-average creativity.	Student shows exceptional creativity.